JAMES D. CUTTER, OVERSEER OF POOR,

Report of Library Trustees.

By vote of the town March 8 1892 the town made the necessary appropriation to receive aid from the state, under Sec. 25 Chap. 8 Public Statutes in relation to Public Libraries.

We attended to the duties of securing shelving with doors and lock suitable for the present, also drafted regulations for the management and control of the library.

We acknowledge the receipt of 106 volumes from the state.

60 " that were bought by subscription and donated by vote of members to the public library.

After consulting with the selectmen we have placed
10 volumes that were in the town-clerks hands in said library

1 volume as a Christmas gift from E. B. Dodge which we — acknowledge with thanks.

177 total number of volumes in library at present.

We would recommend that the town pay the incidental expenses so that the $15.00 appropriated could be expended for books, for two years at least.

RESPECTFULLY,

J. F. WHITTEMORE,

Secretary of Library Trustees.

SCHOOL REPORT.

In presenting our report of the schools in town for the past year, we feel justified in claiming general success.

The teachers were engaged by the Board of last year, before the present one was chosen, with the understanding that they were to remain through the school-year if successful. The one hired for No. 3 failed to report, but we were fortunate enough to secure another, so there was no loss.

The school rooms at Centre and South Stoddard are well roofed and fair walls externally, but the interior of both is far from being inviting or comfortable; they are relics of the past and should be improved. No. 2 is plain and cheaply finished, but comfortable and much the best in town. Of school apparatus we have nothing, and teachers feel the need of many of the helps found in the school-houses of the present day. We would earnestly advise the expenditure of a few dollars each year until the need is provided for.

With some pride I mention your very liberal response to call of the National Educational Committee of the Columbian Exposition to take part in celebrating "Columbus Day" Oct. 21st. Flags were hoisted on suitable poles, fully equipped, at each school-house, the ones at Nos. 1 and 2 being furnished by the patrons and friends of each, and the one at No. 3 by Mr. Manley McClure, a former pupil, of Boston, Mass. Each school carried out the national program as morning exercises, and in the afternoon massing at the Centre were addressed by Dr. C. E. Harrington of Keene, a gentleman with no superiors and few peers, followed by a bountiful supper served to all. The expenses were all met by voluntary contributions, and averaged about one dollar for each voter in town.

We often find ourselves unable to keep good teachers when we find them, not because we do not pay enough, but because our school year is short, and thirty-six to forty weeks per year is preferred by teachers to twenty.

That our young women and men leave us largely as fast as fitted for life's battles should not discourage us or lead us to take less interest in the fitting.

The record of scores who have gone from here during the past fifty years proves that Stoddard has done and is still doing much in moulding the world in general, and particularly the land we live in. Heaven has no mercy for the mortals so supremely selfish that they want to live for themselves alone—we cannot learn of any place where they are wanted.

We itemize as follows.

School No. 1: Centre.

Teacher spring term, Miss Mary L. Kimball of Hopkinton, N. H. The teacher was above reproach in every particular, but lacked the energy needed; hence "She did what she could;" but the examination was a disappointment to us, altogether too sleepy. Term 8 weeks; pupils 21.; average attendance 75 per cent., wages of teachers per month, including board, $ 31.00.

Fall term. Miss Alice G. Adams of Boscawen, N. H. This term was a success. Miss Adams has all the qualifications needed for success in any school, and every scholar felt the stimulus of her energy. The school made good progress, and we hope for more of her good work. Term 15 weeks; number of pupils 23; average daily attendance 87 per cent.

No. 2 School.

Teacher spring term Miss Minnie A. Blood of Greenville, N. H. This school was successful in every particular, and so far as I know the teacher gave universal satisfaction. Term 8 weeks; number of scholars 15; average attendance 80 per cent.; wages of teachers including board $ 24.00

Fall term. Teacher Miss Grace B. Whitford of Melrose, Mass. Miss Whitford came to this school at our call, on three days' notice, and brought good qualifications, backed by an earnest purpose and love for her work.

Miss Blood, the former teacher, having broken her engagement at a late day, greatly embarrassing the Board of Education and throwing over all her friends here, made it hard for her successor, but the earnest, faithful efforts of Miss Whitford resulted in victory at last where the reverse was looked for. Term 13.1 weeks; number of scholars 16; average attendance 80 per cent.; wages of teacher including board $24.00

No: 3 School.

The first teacher hired for this school failing to report on account of sickness, at a late day, left us without a teacher for a week, but Miss Emma E. Cutter of this town finally consented to take it, and soon it was evident we had made no mistake in securing her.

Justice to teacher and scholars compels us to say that we believe it was much the best school had at South Stoddard since we have known it. It started well and improved every week. Take your laurels, Miss Cutter. you have earned them. Spring term 8 weeks; number of pupils 24; average attendance 87 per cent. Fall term 15 weeks; number of pupils 28; average attendance 78 per cent.; wages of teacher including board $24.00.

Four of the five teachers employed have had Normal School training, which, in most cases, is of great advantage; but, good judgment, combined with push, is in our times of hustle, of the first importance.

We find the following names on the roll of honor:—

Nellie Hobbs,	Eva G. Abbott,	Mira Dodge
